HAUGEN

Not only a stunningly beautiful building but the Pavilion achieved a BREEAM Outstanding rating, placing it in the top 1% of new buildings in the UK for sustainability including 70% cement replacement (GGBS) in the shallow foundations.

The impressive Bauhaus inspired wood and glass building 'Haugen' is a tribute to an unsung hero of the first Winter Olympics in 1924 and a celebration of Stratford's role in hosting the 2012 London Olympics.

In total the restaurant complex has 544 covers. This includes a ground floor deli, a casual ground floor restaurant featuring an indoor Winter Garden, two first-floor private dining rooms, a spacious first-floor restaurant and cocktail bar, and a rooftop terrace with spectacular views of Stratford and the Olympic Park.

Haugen also has outdoor covers, split over a ground floor terrace and first floor wrap around outdoor dining space. An all-day restaurant and rooftop bar overlooking the Olympic Park a destination restaurant in Stratford, East London.

Haugen's Alpine inspired menu features modern versions of classic Alpine dishes including irresistible cheese fondue, tartiflette and raclette. Whether it's for breakfast at 8am, a leisurely lunch, a takeaway from the grab and go deli, after work drinks on the rooftop terrace, a romantic dinner or a celebration, Haugen hits the spot.

As the evening draws in, the fun and convivial ambience at Haugen comes alive with faux fur throws and warm lighting creating invitingly intimate corners.
